EXPERIENCE

FULL-STACK WEB DEVELOPER | NOVEMBER 2023 - PRESENT
Freelance - HLA Jeans Philippines

- Crafting a job board web application for a prominent Chinese clothing brand, HLA, focusing on user-centric design and features such as a job board, application forms, tracker, and dashboard.
- Utilizing a robust tech stack including React, Next.js, TypeScript, Tailwind, Framer Motion for the front-end and Prisma as an ORM and Supabase's postgres for the backend.
- Committed to continuous learning and adaptation, keeping up with React's evolving landscape through avid engagement with programming newsletters and videos.

SEO CONTENT WRITER | OCTOBER 2021 - DECEMBER 2022
Full-Time Remote - NoBS Marketplace (South Geelong, Australia)

- Embraced further SEO practices and ongoing research to explore and implement diverse techniques for enhanced rankings and improved content visibility.
- Developed a collaborative approach, taking additional articles during high-demand periods and coordinating effectively across departments for smoother content production.
- Applied the same tenacity and approach to programming, focusing on continuous learning, application, and repetitive practice to improve skills and deliver exceptional results.

AMAZON ACCOUNT MANAGER | JULY 2020 - OCTOBER 2021
Full-Time Remote - Northern Response LTD (Ontario, Canada)

- Consistently managed five-digit weekly and six-digit monthly ad budgets, leveraging data analysis and continual research to enhance ad strategies, earning client trust through tangible results.
- Used an analytical approach and persistent research to optimize sales strategies, mirroring this method in programming through dedicated learning, practical application, and iterative practice.
- Managed multiple Amazon stores (US, Canada, Mexico) and Shopify listings, focusing on optimizing listings and conducting consistent audits for enhancements.
